P R E F A C E .

The magnificent collection of Paper Money which is described in this Catalogue, and which, on the 25th of March next, will be offered for public competition, will, we are confident, elicit the attention of all collectors in this country.

The Collection contains a great many rarities.

Among the Colonial Notes will be found fine and rare notes of Virginia, New Hampshire, Georgia, &c. Among the Confederate Notes such as the $1000, $500, $100, $50 of the National Bank Note Co., and especially among the Miscellaneous, many rare and interesting pieces.

The lots are sold so much for each piece in it. If you desire to limit your bid at $1 for a lot containing five pieces, your bid should be 20 cents each.

Parties desiring to see the Notes, can, by making an appointment, see them any afternoon after 3 P. M., at 67 William Street, Room 9, They will also be on exhibition in the Auction Room on the day of sale, from 11 A. M., to 7 P. M.

Parties who cannot attend the sale can have their bids faithfully executed by
